

Lake Oroville Storage

State's Major* Reservoirs

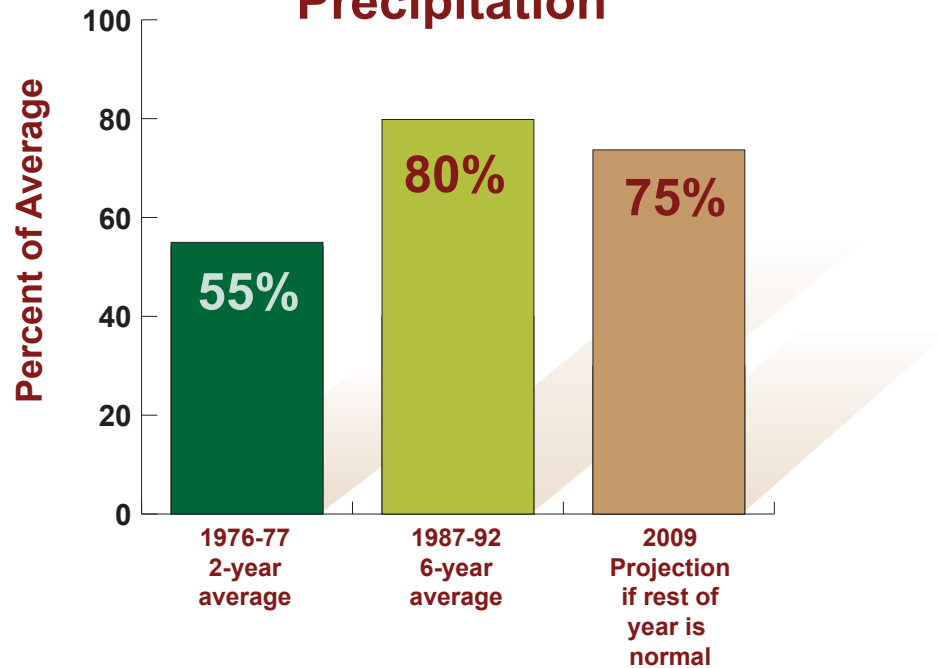

*Trinity, Shasta, Oroville, Folsom, New Melones (not used in 76-77 average), Don Pedro, San Luis.

Reservoir Conditions

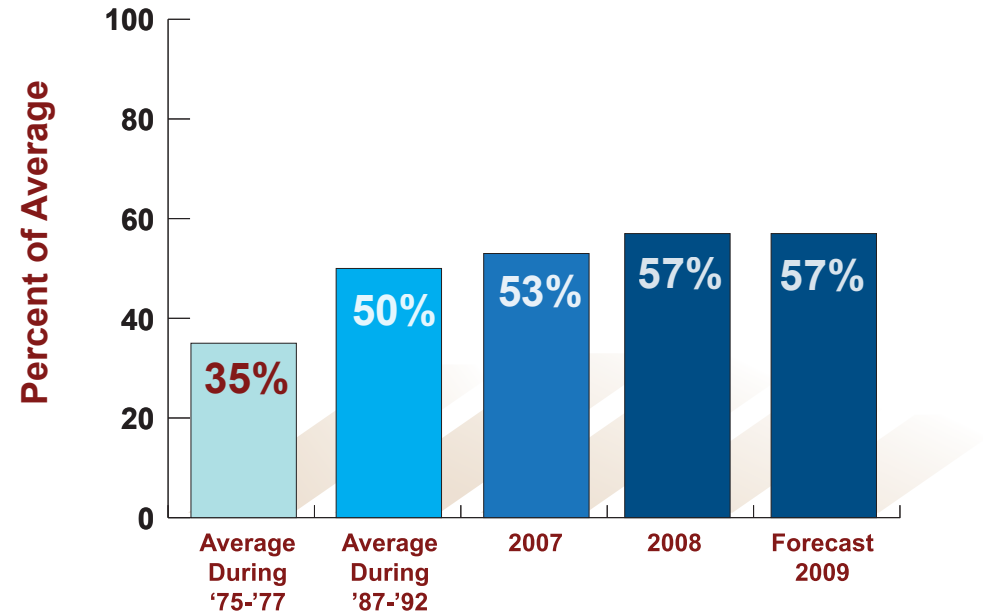

- Lake Oroville had its lowest carryover storage from 2008 since the drought of 1977.
- Even with recent rains, the state's major reservoirs are projected to be at only 43% of capacity by March 1.

DROUGHT

Statewide Seasonal Precipitation

Statewide Runoff

Current Conditions

- Current statewide snowpack in the Sierra is 74% of average for this date (2/18/2009)
- Northern Sierra precipitation is 76% of average for this date (2/18/2009)